DRESSMAKING.

A cause of complaint at the present time is extray agance in ladies' wearing apparet. What it costs now to dress a lady of fashion would have supported an entire family a few years ago. Messrs. LOED & TAYLOR, to prove that retrenchment is possible, have so arranged their Dressmaking Department that economy in untertained trimming is particularly studied in every detail, and they are now furnishing Dresses at a much less price than the cost of imported garneents, while for style, fit, appearance and general make up they are every way equal to the finest Parisian manufacture.
